DEDICATION

Our final year at Marianhill saw many changes. The biggest change was the naming of Mr. James Doyle as headmaster. The job of headmaster is not an easy one. It requires time, patience, and understanding.

He came here to rebuild the community of Marianhill. With an open mind, he listened to us, even though we didn't always listen to him. When he first came to "the hill", a lot of us wondered how he could help the school. The time and effort put in by Mr. Doyle showed us that he cared.

Thank you Mister Doyle, for caring.

SENIOR RETREAT

CAROL BEAUDRY

As my high school years come to an end and as I start a new beginning, I take out my memories and sort them, the rough cut-jewels of my life. I relive them all and then put them away in my special box, laying the dark ones on the bottom and covering them over with the shining ones.

For now I have new experiences coming, new sorrows, perhaps, but new joys also. I have fresh opportunities to help someone who needs it and more love and understanding to give.

For my journey to tomorrow is always just beginning . . .

DEBORAH BERNARDONE

Capricorne (22 decembre-20 janvier)

Tres travailleur, econome, diplomate arrogant. Vous avez, comme Napoleon, beaucoup d'ambition et vous etudiez beaucoup. Vous vivrez tres longtemps mais il faudra surveiller les rhumatismes.

LYNN COTTON

Where you come from is not nearly as important as where you are going.

THERESA CROKE

Finger
A friend is a present you give yourself.

LYNNE CUNNINGHAM

The last three years at Marianhill have been the best years of my life, but now they have to come to an end. But I know that they'll be many more good years to come thanks to the senior class. They make me feel like a part of a large family. I'm going to miss them all.

MICHAEL JONES

Hung over, Red eyed, Dog tired satisfied.
It's a long road, and a little wheel,
and it takes a lot of turns to get there.

Thank You, Damn It.

Charlie Daniels 1974

EVENING WALK

Stepping off the back porch,
Thinking it's not cold out.
I wonder who'll be out in my world tonight.
The wet glitter of the pavement
Captures my eyes but not my attention.
for my mind is working;
Asking me questions,
Questions my brain can't answer.
A Chevrolet rides by;
My hand goes up in answer to the horn.
Dark figures emerge from the church across the street;
Strange voice saying familiar things.
And I wonder where my world ends
And another world begins;
And I know it's not really mine,
But it hurts nothing to pretend
When I know that there is one thing
That will always claim my feelings;
They're what makes this person me.
I am willing to share them,
But they will never be free
For anyone to steal away from me.

GAYLE KEYES

Gayle Keyes

BRIAN LARKIN

It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness

LORI MACKOWIAK

If I could save time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do
Is to save every day 'Til Eternity passes away Just to spend Them with you

If I could make days last forever If words could make wishes come true I'd save every day like a Treasure and then again, I would spend them with you.

But there never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do Once you find Them I've looked around enough to know that you're the one I want to go Through Time with

If I had a box just for wishes And dreams that had never come true The box would be empty Except for the memory Of How they were answered by you

Jim Croce died in a plane crash in 1972

EILEEN MONGEAU

"I have no preconceived ideas on how things have to be, I'll just take life as it comes and hope that it takes me."

TIGHE MORIARTY

The way you go must be your decision.

LISA MORIN

Sometimes I wonder why it has to end. We had good times as well as bad. But all of those memories are thoughts to look back on.

I say we can walk away and smile, and maybe see each other once in a while. Why does it have to be done? Because we all have a future, but our memories will always be with us, we will all remember our friends at MARIANHILL!

JOHN MORRILL

Happiness comes from feeling deeply,
enjoying simply, and thinking freely.

DANIEL ROY

MARIA SUGALSKI

Maybe if we don't look back, it will be easier to say goodbye to the best part of our lives . . . our friends

Time has passed so quickly since that day four years ago when we first stepped through those doors. But the events that make those days gauge more than the passing of time. They reflect the growth of our minds and our personalities. Whether we were having fun with old friends, meeting new ones, or just being alone with ourselves, we were growing TOGETHER in laughter and love.

CLASS SONG

It's all starting now as the sun meets the sea.
There's nothing to fear and so much to be.
But soon we must go; say good-bye to it all.
That future of ours is beginning to call.

Good-bye doesn't mean this has to be the end.
Future dreams grow clear and bright.
And I got a feeling we will meet again
As we go through our separate lives.

The wind in our hair and the sun in our eyes.
There's no need for tears and no time for lies.
So reach out my hand and I'll reach out my heart.
Remember me while we apart.

Good-bye doesn't mean this has to be the end.
Future dreams grow clear and bright.
And I got a feeling we will meet again
As we go through our separate lives.
